The Catch Me Interviews - Jackeline Olivier

by Chris Mackey
(Sept. 29, 2007)

1) Day of the Dead 2, any Ana Clavell stories?

Not particularly, she's a talented woman, who has the ability to wear a lot of different hats in the entertainment industry.

2) Socom II & Spy Kids 3:Game Over, how weird to be a voice actor, did you like the experience?

I loved it; it's a challenge. It requires a little more of your imagination, because you have to create a world and interact with characters that are not there. Most of the time is just you and the microphone. With dubbing it is a little easier, you get to watch the scene once or twice, then record the voice.

3) Werewolf in a Women's Prison. A great role was it the most fun?

I had a great time on the set, the crew and cast were amazing. I had no idea that playing a 'sadistic lesbian prison guard' would be that much fun. I really enjoy torturing and whipping the female prisoners. Who would've thought, considering that everybody thinks that I'm a goooood girl. I had to do an extensive background work for this character. (joke)

4)On/Off set, What do co-workers deem the BEST of Jackeline?

They think I'm very professional, passionate, committed, organized, that I pay attention to little details, and that I care.

5) " On/Off " the set, what's the WORST of Jackeline?

Well, I guess because I care too much, sometimes I become anal and demanding. Not everybody's heart beats at the same pace. They usually say 'RELAX JACKIE', and that for me is almost impossible, considering that I'm very energetic and a little hyper sometimes.

6) Noticed you've worked in various countries, Has this helped your career?

Living and working in different countries gave me experience and knowledge about different cultures. It helped me to understand HUMAN BEINGS a little more, is also helps me in creating different characters with different backgrounds. But when it comes to book the job, it won't make a difference whether you lived and worked in 20 countries or just in the US.

7) What came first modeling or acting, why switch? Or have you?

I always wanted to act, but living in small city in the south of Brazil, I didn't have a lot of opportunities to pursue my dreams. So I started out doing a little modeling, then I moved to the BIG CITY and worked my way up to do what I love the most.

8) One word descriptions:

- a) David Heavener: knowledgeable.
- b) Jeff Leroy: industrious.
- c) Carmen Electra: smart.

9) Dancing is part of you, do you like ALL the Dancing Shows on TV?

Dance has been part of my life for a long time. I don't have much time to watch TV, but 'Dancing with the Stars' is one show that I enjoy watching.

10) Well, Here is your chance-Give us "The World According to Jackeline" speech?

My perfect world would be filled with love, peace, healthcare and food for everybody. But in this not so-perfect world we live in, I do my best by being fair, honest and good to people. It goes with that famous expression "YOU WILL GET WHAT YOU GIVE". I think you should never give up your hopes and dreams, enjoy your life and make every minute count. Life is too short and too precious to be wasted.
